ELIZABETH KESLEY.

Anne Arundel County, April 26, 1749.

WHEREAS I am apprehensive, that many of the Inhabitants of this County are not apprized of the Law limiting the time for paying of the public Due; and Officers Fees, &c., the late Act of Assembly in that Case made and provided; I therefore give this public Notice, by reciting the Words of the said Act, that all Persons concern'd may present themselves from being liable to be executed as the said law directs; by which Time I hope they will make Payment, which will prevent the and other further Trouble.

And be it further Enacted, That all public and County Officers, Parochial Charges, and Attorneys Fees, that shall be paid in Tobacco; Clergy's Allowances, and all Officers Fees payable in Tobacco; shall be paid and satisfied by the Persons chargeable with and indebted for the same, to the respective Sheriffs, by Inspectors Notes, before the 10th Day of June yearly, during the Continuance of this Act: And if any Person chargeable with Lewis, Parochial Charges, Clergy's Allowances, and Fees, as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same within the Time aforesaid, it shall and may be law for the Sheriff, immediately after the said 10th Day of June, to distrain the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so neglecting and refusing, and to sell and dispose thereof at the Expiration of five Days after Distress made, for Tobacco at public Auction; all which shall be done by the said Sheriff, without Pece or Reward, and the Overplus, if any be beyond what will satisfy the Demands aforesaid, shall be returned to the Debtor. Provided always, that when any Person, who shall be indebted for Public or County Lewis, Clergy's Dues, Parochial Charges, Officers and Attorneys Fees, shall refuse to shew Tobacco to the Sheriff, or any other Goods or Chattels to be distrained; that then and in such Cases, it shall and may be lawful for the Sheriff to take such Person in Execution for such Lewis, Dues, Charges, and Fees. [These are the Words of the Act in this Case.]

And I further give Notice, that no Person may be disappointed in doing Business with me at my Office, that constant Attendance will be given at the said Office on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, in every Week; unless any unforeseen Accident hinders me.

John Gassaway, Sheriff.
